

The National Automobile Dealers Association Gave $160,000 To The Sedition Caucus And Has Leadership Ranks Stocked With Republican And Conservative Operatives

SUMMARY: The National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) has given $160,000 after claiming that it was "assessing" its political contributions after the insurrection and despite its claim to uphold "the highest standards of ethical conduct."

Additionally, NADA's Sedition Caucus contributions are at odds with its CEO's aspiration to "make progress for the long term" regarding diversity and inclusion, since the insurrection was seen as "the culmination" of Trump-era white supremacy. The rioters were also driven by the "same pretext" of false voter fraud claims that later drove 2021's wave of voter restrictions that threatened marginalized communities.

Lastly, NADA's Sedition Caucus donations may have also been influenced by the fact that its leadership is rife with Republican operatives and supporters:

- NADA's Senior Vice President of Public Affairs was the Executive Director of Karl Rove's super PAC American Crossroads, Press Secretary for the National Republican Congressional Committee, a Deputy Chief of Staff for Rep. Patrick McHenry (R-NC), and the Communications Director for Grover Norquist's anti-tax group Americans for Tax Reform.
- NADA's Vice President of Legislative Affairs was a senior George W. Bush administration appointee, a Legislative Director for Rep. Bob Franks (R-NJ)—a prominent "fiscal conservative"—and a Deputy Chief of Staff for Rep. Clay Shaw (R-FL)—who called welfare "a form of slavery."
- NADA board member Don "K" Kaltschmidt is a "lifelong Republican," has been the Montana Republican Party Chairman, a county Republican party Chairman, and a 2012 delegate to the Republican National Convention.

The National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) Gave $160,000 To Republicans Who Refused To Certify Joe Biden's Electoral Victory Despite Claiming That It Was "Assessing" Political Donations After The Insurrection And A Code Of Ethics That Touts "The Highest Standards Of Ethical Conduct."

NADA Only Claimed It Was "Assessing" Its Political Donations After The Insurrection.

NADA Said It Was "Assessing" Its Political Contributions Following The Insurrection. "Corporations and industry trade associations have contributed $170 million collectively to the campaigns of the 147 GOP lawmakers who voted to challenge the 2020 election results, according to a new report from progressive watchdog group Public Citizen. [...] Public Citizens released its analysis, 'Bankrolling the Disenfranchisers' on Wednesday. It called out the National Association of Realtors (NAR), American Bankers Association (ABA), National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA), National Beer Wholesalers Association (NBWA) and AT&T as the five largest contributors to the 147. [...] Similarly, the NADA said its PAC donates to hundreds of members each cycle and it is assessing its political contributions going forward." The Hill, [01/13/21]

NADA's Code Of Ethics Includes Pledges To Have "The Highest Standards Of Ethical Conduct" And To "Fully Comply With All Laws That Prohibit Discrimination."

NADA's Code Of Ethics, Which All Member Dealers Observe, Includes A Pledge To "Operate This Business In Accord With The Highest Standards Of Ethical Conduct." "As a member of NADA, member dealers subscribe to the following principles and standards. Implicit in this Code is the requirement that NADA members comply fully with all federal, state, and local laws governing their businesses. [...] Operate this business in accord with the highest standards of ethical conduct." NADA, accessed [11/30/21]

NADA CEO Mike Stanton On Diversity And Inclusion: "Quick Wins Are Not What This Is All About. It's More About Sustainability And Making Sure That We Make Progress For The Long Term." "National Automobile Dealers Association CEO Mike Stanton reported the association's approach to diversity, equity and inclusion is one that with repeated effort can gain momentum and grow larger. Stanton reported that diversity, equity and inclusion is a long-time goal for the association. He is quoted in Automotive News as saying, 'Quick wins are not what this is all about. It's more about sustainability and making sure that we make progress for the long term.' In June, General Motors selected NADA as the exclusive provider of 20 Group services for General Motors' four minority dealer development 20 Groups. Stanton calls the partnership a 'win-win' for dealers and for the association as part of a longer-term diversity, equity and inclusion strategy." Auto Dealer Today, [7/13/21]

The Associated Press Found That The Insurrection Was "The Culmination" Of Several White Supremacist Displays During The Trump Administration, Including The Deadly "'Unite The Right Rally.'" "Amid the American flags and Trump 2020 posters at the U.S. Capitol during last week's insurrection were far more sinister symbols: A man walking the halls of Congress carrying a Confederate flag. Banners proclaiming white supremacy and anti-government extremism. A makeshift noose and gallows ominously erected outside. In many ways this hate-filled display was the culmination of many others over the past few years, including the deadly 2017 'Unite the Right' rally in Charlottesville, Virginia, that gathered extremist factions from across the country under a single banner." Associated Press, [11/15/21]

- "Extremist Groups" Had A Presence In The Insurrection, "Including The Pro-Trump, Far-Right, Anti-Government Oath Keepers And The Three Percenters." "Extremist groups, including the pro-Trump, far-right, anti-government Oath Keepers and the Three Percenters, a loose anti-government network that's part of the militia movement, were among those descending on the halls of power on Jan. 6." Associated Press, [11/15/21]

Avowed White Nationalist Group The Groyper Army Was Present At The Insurrection. "Also among the rioters were members of Groyper Army, a loose network of white nationalists, the white supremacist New Jersey European Heritage Association, and the far-right extremist Proud Boys, along with other known white supremacists, Tuchman said. While not all the anti-government groups were explicitly white supremacist, Tuchman said many support white supremacist beliefs." Associated Press, [1/14/21]

The Brookings Institution Found That The Insurrection Was Motivated By The "Same Pretext" Of Voter Fraud—Which Is "Very Rare"—That Republican State Officials Relied On To Advance State Voter Restrictions After The 2020 Election.

Brookings Institution: Republican State Officials Used The "Same Pretext" Of Voter Fraud That Motivated The Insurrection To Advance Voter Restrictions Following The 2020 Election, Including In Georgia, Where The Law Added "Many Obstacles To Voting." "Just three short months ago, a violent mob overran our nation's Capital Building to revolt against certifying Joe Biden as the winner of the 2020 presidential election. Many of the rioters carried signs proclaiming 'Stop the Steal'—reflecting the lies that President Donald Trump and his team stoked about voter fraud. Today, many elected officials are using that same pretext to dismantle the voting rights won during the civil rights movement. [...] In Georgia, Governor Brian Kemp just signed into law a bill that adds many obstacles to voting, including reducing the number of ballot boxes, shrinking the window for early voting, adding additional photo ID requirements, and allowing state officials to circumvent the work of county election officials if they don't like the outcomes they are seeing." Brookings Institution, [04/19/21]

"Extensive Research" Has Shown That Voter Fraud "Is Very Rare, Voter Impersonation Is Virtually Nonexistent, And Many Instances Of Alleged Fraud Are, In Fact, Mistakes By Voters Or Administrators." "Politicians at all levels of government have repeatedly, and falsely, claimed the 2016, 2018, and 2020 elections were marred by large numbers of people voting illegally. However, extensive research reveals that fraud is very rare, voter impersonation is virtually nonexistent, and many instances of alleged fraud are, in fact, mistakes by voters or administrators." 2010: Collegio Was Named The Communications Director For The Karl-Rove Founded American Crossroads, And He Was One Of The "First Hires" For "The Largest Republican 'Super PAC'".

“American Crossroads today announced the hire of Jonathan Collegio, an award-winning public affairs strategist, as its new communications director. Collegio will manage media and online relations for the new 527 political organization starting in early July. Collegio, who was named Public Affairs Executive of the Year for 2009 by PR News, is leaving his post as vice president of strategic initiatives at the National Association of Broadcasters, where he coordinates grassroots and media initiatives for the broadcast industry. Over the last several years, Collegio oversaw the broadcast industry’s $1.2 billion public affairs campaign on the transition to digital television (DTV). Collegio also served as press secretary at the National Republican Congressional Committee during the 2006 election cycle and has worked on dozens of campaigns at the federal, state and local levels.” American Crossroads, [6/29/10]

- American Crossroads Is "The Largest Republican 'Super PAC'" And Collegio Was "One Of The Group's First Hires." "Collegio previously served as communications director for American Crossroads in Washington, D.C., the largest Republican 'Super PAC.' - American Crossroads Is A Super PAC Founded By Karl Rove To Elect Republicans. “Forget Newt Gingrich and Mitt Romney. If there’s one Republican who scares Democrats, it’s Karl Rove. American Crossroads and Crossroads GPS, the two groups he helped found, plan to raise $300 million this year to defeat President Obama, elect Republicans to Congress, and block the Democrats’ agenda. They already spent half a million dollars attacking the President’s squeaky clean image with an ad about Solyndra and a voice-over that said “Mr. President we need jobs, not more Washington insider deals.” That was in December, before the first Republican primary was held. Crossroads says they plan many more like it. Though Rove, President George W. Bush’s top political adviser, is the best-known face of American Crossroads, he’s a fundraiser and key strategic adviser but doesn’t work there in any official capacity. The man who runs the Super PAC is Steven Law.” CNN, [1/24/12]
